Chicks Against Ticks<sup>sm</sup>

The National Research Fund for Tick-borne Diseases, Inc. (NRFTD) a non-profit organization based in Wilton, CT will be hosting a special “Ladies Night” called Chicks Against Ticks, on April 11th.

New Canaan resident Carolin Buttrick, an NRFTD board member, will host the event at her home featuring the comedienne Jane Condon from Greenwich, CT.

The NRFTD has been working diligently to raise funds for scientific research on Lyme disease and other tick-borne diseases such as, anaplasmosis, babesiosis, bartonella and ehrlichiosis. The need for answers has grown markedly as Lyme disease continues to spread throughout the country and as additional tick-borne infections have emerged as a serious public health threat.

For more information about the Chicks Against Ticks event, or to make a tax-deductible donation to the NRFTD, please call 966-6575 or visit www.nrftd.org
